

THE PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Faith Family,

It is all hands on deck! With school back in, pandemic fatigue, and most summer vacations in the books, we typically notice a rise in visitors to WCBC. Outreach by committee is the best way to have people make repeat visits to our church. We need everyone on friendly duty around this campus. Keep in mind as you meet people around the campus that if you do not know them, it would be perfectly appropriate for you to be kind and offer to help them. Invite strangers to sit with you or around you. Perhaps even Sunday school classes could sit around one another during the corporate services so you can have a little more interaction and fellowship (you know y'all like to talk!) Anyway, stay outgoing and open to give people a warm and loving experience here at WCBC.

Encourage folks you meet at work or school to check us out online. Our web page is currently getting a facelift and the newer, modern, and user-friendly version should be rolled out soon. Modern folks will visit several church web sites to find out about those churches prior to making a visit. Our church staff information, core beliefs, youth and children's ministry events and contact information are made available via the web page. Also, the Sunday sermons are available online for listening any time day or night. The web address is www.watsonchapelbaptist.org. Keep in mind though, nothing replaces a great impression left by friendly people when they actually do visit. STAY FRIENDLY!

Parents get ready because AWANA is just around the corner. We need volunteers to help work the Gospel into the hearts and minds of our kids, so think about helping and see Bro. Ben for more information.

Blessings, Bro. Todd

Remember, you are coming to the Lord's house to worship.
Please dress modestly and show deference.

"...likewise also that women should adorn themselves in respectable apparel, with modesty and self-control..."

Thank you so much for nourishing our bodies as well as our souls. Your prayers and meals were greatly appreciated. Thank you for serving the Lord. May the Lord reward you for your kindness. Sincerely, Deborah Williams and family

Dear WCBC Family, It's a comfort to know we can count on each other through whatever life brings. Thanks for all the prayers, calls and food during my illness. Thanks again for such a loving church family. Sharon Coston.

Dear Church Family, If there were adequate words to thank all of you, I would use them. The texts, calls, cards, conversations, and of course, food, were over and above what was expected. But because we are a family of believers, this is just a normal response. And for WCBC, it is just that, it's what is done, and so well. Many, many thanks for sincerely demonstrating love and compassion. One never knows how much these acts of kindness mean until being on the receiving end of them. The Prices & The Granthams
